How Disability Benefits work

Susan hurt her back and was out of work for 2 months after satisfying her elimination period. Chubb Disability Income insurance paid Susan $4,000 to pay her bills.

Here's how Susan's benefits stack up.

Disability Benefit Month 1	$2,000
Disability Benefit Month 2	$2,000
Total Benefit	$4,000

Additional benefits may apply and may be subject to deductible sources of income.

* This example is for illustrative purposes only and should not be compared to an actual claim. Whether a disability is covered depends on the circumstances of the loss. Refer to the certificate of insurance for terms and conditions.

How do I qualify for Disability Benefits?

You qualify for benefits when, as a result of an injury or sickness[†], you

- are unable to work at your occupation;
- are not working for pay or benefits; and
- are under a physician's care for the covered injury or sickness.

Following a disability, if you are able to return to work but not able to perform all of your job duties, you may be eligible for partial disability benefits.

When do benefits begin?

If you become disabled, benefits begin immediately following your elimination period.

Accident Elimination Period: 14 days

Sickness Elimination Period: 14 days

When do benefits end?

Benefits end when you return to work or have reached your maximum benefit period, if sooner.

Benefit Period: 6 months

Additional Benefits

With Chubb's Disability Income insurance, you get even more than your disability benefit. To help you avoid financial hardship and ease your recovery, you get these benefits too:

Pregnancy Benefit

Disability benefits for pregnancy will be covered the same as a covered Sickness.

Organ Donation Benefit

A disability due to an organ donation is covered as a sickness and the elimination period is waived.

Waiver of Premium

Once you have been disabled for 14 days after satisfying your elimination period, you no longer have to pay premium for your coverage. Premium will not be due until you are no longer receiving disability benefits.

Partial Disability

Once an employee has been Totally Disabled, Partial Disability benefits are available to help transition employees back to work for up to 50% of the Maximum Benefit Amount.
